DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. At the beginning of the story, why was Madame Blueberry so “blue”? What did she think would make her happier?
2. Did buying more stuff make Madame Blueberry happy? Why or why not?
3. Madame Blueberry had good friends like Bob and Larry to help show her how to be grateful for what she already had. Who are some of the people in your life who can help remind you of God’s blessings? How can you help remind your friends and family of the things God has given them?
4. Think about some of the things you wish you had or could do right now. Does not having those things make you sad or upset? Why would God want us to focus more on His blessings than the things we don’t have?
5. Why does being grateful give you a “happy heart”?
6. Junior Asparagus REALLY wanted that toy train set, but he wasn’t able to get it. He was disappointed at first, but then he was happy. Why? Is it easy or hard to be grateful when you don’t get what you want?

CALL TO ACTION

This week as you figure out how to deal with all the changes and disappointments life has given you, take some time as a family to write down all the things for which you are grateful. When you begin to get frustrated or “blue” about the things you don’t have, go back to your list and take a moment to thank God for some of the things on your list. Add to the list as you go.
