

Sunday, August 16

Parents,

This weekend we are going to be learning one of the most important lessons ever – it is a lesson about the magnitude of God’s love and forgiveness. Which is greater...God’s love or our sin? You probably know the answer to that question, but after this weekend, your children will too!

When you are ready to begin, start your morning by watching the short lesson video with your children. It is a great way to engage spiritually with your family. Don’t forget to participate in the worship videos afterwards.

LESSON SNAPSHOT

Bible Story: God’s love and forgiveness

Big Idea: God’s love and forgiveness is greater than our sin.

Memory Verse: “But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” Romans 5:8

Sometimes it is easy to know in your head that God’s love is greater than your sin, but I’m praying this week that you would know and believe that truth deep down in your soul.

In Him,
